KUALA LUMPUR (Sept 5): TH Plantations Bhd, the plantation arm of Lembaga Tabung Haji (LTH), has appointed Syed Hamadah Syed Othman as a non-independent and non-executive director of the company, effective Tuesday.

Syed Hamadah, 52, who is the former chief executive officer (CEO) of Retirement Fund Inc (KWAP), was in May appointed as the new managing director and CEO of LTH.

Currently, he is also a board member of Private Pension Administrator Malaysia and director and senior partner of Actuarial Partners Consulting Sdn Bhd.

His past experience also includes being consulting actuaries at Mercer Zainal Consulting Sdn Bhd, technical analyst at Petronas Trading Corp Sdn Bhd and board member of EDOTCO Sdn Bhd, said TH Plantations in a filing to Bursa Malaysia.

Syed Hamadah is also a fellow of the Faculty and Institute of Actuaries in United Kingdom and a fellow of the Actuarial Society Malaysia.

TH Plantation's shares closed down 1.5 sen or 2.61% to 56 sen, valuing the company at RM494.96 million.
