KUALA LUMPUR (Feb 22): Based on corporate announcements and news flow on Tuesday (Feb 22), companies in focus on Wednesday (Feb 23) could include: Axiata Group Bhd, Berjaya Assets Bhd, Berjaya Sports Toto Bhd, Complete Logistic Services Bhd, Dayang Enterprise Holdings Bhd, Gamuda Bhd, Kerjaya Prospek Group Bhd, Lagenda Properties Bhd, Leong Hup International Bhd (LHI), MSM Malaysia Holdings Bhd, NCT Alliance Bhd, Nestlé (Malaysia) Bhd, Petronas Dagangan Bhd (PetDag), Petronas Gas Bhd (PetGas), Revenue Group Bhd, Supercomnet Technologies Bhd (Scomnet), Supermax Corp Bhd, TH Plantations Bhd, Tomei Consolidated Bhd, Wah Seong Corp Bhd and Yinson Holdings Bhd.

TH Plantations Bhd reported an improvement of 15% for its fourth quarter ended Dec 31, 2021 (4QFY21) net profit at RM1.83 million from RM1.59 million a year prior, citing changes in estimates in relation to the accounting for its biological assets.

Quarterly revenue, meanwhile, rose 71% to RM247.55 million from RM144.55 million, mainly attributable to higher revenue from its oil palm plantations amid higher sales volume for crude palm oil (CPO) and palm kernel (PK), as well as higher average realised prices for CPO, PK and fresh fruit bunch.
